

Please allow this technology to continue to advance and do not be satisfied with the status quo, because competition only advances the welfare of the people and the economy.